Festival Closes with Play from Argentina

First Time Mother (Madre Primeriza)

written, directed and performed by by Mariel Rosciano

Opening Thursday, November 15, 2012, at 8 p.m.

Additional Performances Friday, November 16, at 8 p.m., and Saturday, November 17, at 3 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Luckily a first child only arrives once in a lifetime.

First Time Mother, a delightful one-woman-show from Argentina, takes a hilarious and irreverent look at Motherhood 101, the ultimate immersion course. One day there's a profession, a husband, a house – and then a baby arrives. A woman's life will never be the same. again

And what about the father's life? Actor Mariel Rosciano tries to answer that, too.

First Time Mother, a production by theater troupe Gazpatxo Producciones, is the closing play in the 15th International Festival of Hispanic Theater, which presents DC, Maryland and Northern Virginia audiences with the unusual opportunity to see some of the best in Latin American and Spanish theater performed by award-winning actors and theater groups from Spanish-speaking countries. The annual festival, produced by Teatro de la Luna (in Spanish with simultaneous English dubbing), takes place at Gunston Arts Center-Theater Two, 2700 S. Lang Street in Arlington.

Childcare can be arranged for the Saturday matinee; please call for details.

TICKETS: Regular $35; Students and Seniors (over 60 years old), $30
