“HAPPY AND HEALTHY” (SANOS Y CONTENTOS)

A special presentation at

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS CIVIC PLAZA

TEATRO DE LA LUNA presents a special open-air production of the bilingual family-friendly play Happy and Healthy (Sanos y Contentos), by Hispanic playwright Neher J. Briceño, on two consecutive Saturdays: September 14 and 21 with two showtimes, at 10:00 am and 11:00 am. The one-actor show promotes good health and nutrition. It will unfold on Washington, D.C.’s COLUMBIA HEIGHTS CIVIC PLAZA, in the area between 14th Street NW and Park Road NW, in conjunction with the Saturday farmers’ market. The show is free.

In Happy and Healthy, friendly Ms. Lechuga (Ms. Lettuce) and her uncle, Don Pepino (Mr. Cucumber) join forces against the evil Doña Flojera (Mrs. Lazyness) to reclaim a world of good nutrition and exercise—so that they may live healthy and happy lives.

The show is part of Teatro de la Luna’s Experience Theater Program. The education-focused program introduces children in the D.C. metro area to live theater and sparks their interest in the performing arts. Experience Theater performances are presented in schools, libraries and other public spaces. Plays in its repertoire contain themes that support young peoples’ personal discovery and growth and dialogue that bolsters language use and vocabulary.

Note: We cordially invite the Press to attend any of the mentioned performances.
