TEATRO DE LA LUNA

“THURSDAYS AT LA LUNA” Video screening of the play “AMOR AL AIRE LIBRE” in Spanish.

Celebrating its Silver Anniversary, Teatro de la Luna is presenting ‘THURSDAYS AT LA LUNA,’ a showcase of videos of its best stage performances over the last 25 years. The evening screenings are designed to bring people together to see and discuss past performances and their highlights.

The screenings are being held monthly at 7 p.m. at Casa de la Luna (4020 Georgia Ave., NW, Washington DC, 20011), conveniently located not far from the Georgia Avenue-Petworth Metro; there is also a Metro bus stop right in front of the venue. Street parking is free in the evenings after 6.30 pm.

The ninth screening, on May 5th, will be the play “Amor Al Aire Libre” (Love in the open air) by the great Argentine playwright Carlos Pais and directed by La Luna’s Mario Marcel. The play features actors Anabel Marcano, Nucky Walder and Peter Pereyra.

Closing the program, “Justo en lo Mejor de mi Vida” (Just at Life’s Best Moment) by Alicia Muñoz will be screened on June 2, 2016.

The events are free but space is limited. Donations are welcome. There will be refreshments for sale.

Reservations: 202-882-6227 or 703-548-3092; info@teatrodelaluna.org
