TEATRO DE LA LUNA presents

MADRES DE LA REVOLUCION

MOTHERS OF THE REVOLUTION by Leora Lihach (USA)

TEATRO DE LA LUNA presents Madres de la Revolución/ Mothers of the Revolution by Leora Lihach a playreading directed by Mario Marcel. The play, based on the “Testimonies of the Salvadorian Woman” was originally written in English, and translated into Spanish by Jorge Hugo Escobar.

Of the three presentations, two of them will be held at CASA DE LA LUNA (4020 Georgia Av., NW, Washington, DC 20011) and one presentation at MARYMOUNT UNIVERSITY in Arlington VA.

The first performance will take place on Sunday, February 12 at 4 p.m., in Spanish at Casa de la Luna; the second performance will be in English on Friday, February 17 @ 7 p.m. at Reinsch Auditorium at Marymount University in Arlington, Virginia. The third performance will take place on Sunday, February 19 at 4 p.m. at Casa de la Luna, in English.

These performances are part of the 2016-17 Season as final presentations of the Bilingual Actor’s Training workshops led by Teatro de la Luna Artistic Director Mario Marcel, and thanks to the support of the Mayor’s Office on Latino Affairs of the District of Columbia.

Participants interpreting the text: Zeke Alton, Alfredo Castro, Sergio Cornejo, Pablo Guillén, Jhakye García, Alfonso Morales Escobar, Patricia Ludueña, Erika Marine, Adriana Oliver, Sandra Pascale, Carmela Pascale, Jennifer Ristau, Adonis Salcedo, David Walsh.
