TEATRO DE LA LUNA announces

POETRY INTERPRETATION WORKSHOPS

TEATRO DE LA LUNA invites all poetry lovers to participate in “SUMMER AND POETRY FROM THE SOUTHERN CONE COUNTRIES” – Poetry Interpretation Classes in Spanish. In this first series, we will study and interpret poems from recognized writers such as Pablo Neruda, Gabriela Mistral (Chile); Alfonsina Storni, Jorge Luis Borges (Argentina) and Juana de Ibarbourou, Mario Benedetti (Uruguay). In following series, we will delve into other great poets from Latin America and Spain.

The workshops will be led by Teatro de la Luna Artistic Director Mario Marcel and Marcela Ferlito, Coordinator of the Experience Theatre Program, they will be coordinated by Professor and Poet Rei Berroa and Pablo Guillén will be the technical assistant.

The “Summer and Poetry from the Southern Cone Countries” will take place on Tuesdays from 7:00pm to 9:00pm beginning on July 7 through August 25; 8 consecutive sessions free of cost to DC Residents thanks to the support from the DC Mayor’s Office on Latino Affairs. There will be available slots for non-DC residents with a $100 cost.

These workshops launch our 2020-2021 Season and form part of our Experience Theatre Program for those 16 years old and over.
