TEATRO DE LUNA presents "A Tribute to Eugenio Griffiero"

Teatro de la Luna presents a play reading of "Príncipe Azul/Prince Charming" as a tribute to the great Argentinean playwright Eugenio Griffiero (1936-2017), considered as one of the best writers of the absurd and contemporary theatre; and whose legacy is characterized by comic realism, verbal puns and the exploration of the lack of communication. His plays are overflowing in fantasy, paralleled realities and dislocated situations, have been on stage in various countries, including Argentina, Spain, Venezuela, Uruguay and others. In 1982, he received the 'Premio Moliere de Dramaturgia', a dramaturgy award.

Synopsis Two men reunite after 50 years. Between memories, silences, and confessions, they revive a story shaped by repression, unspoken love, and the impossibility of being. Prince Charming is an intimate, moving work that stages what time couldn't erase: the need to find each other.

The play will be performed by Máximo Cáceres, Marco Echeverría and Tania Carcagno under the direction of Teatro de la Luna's Artistic Director Mario Marcel. The production is under the charge of Nucky Walder and Marcela Ferlito is Assistant Director.

Teatro de la Luna extends this invitation to all lovers of quality theatre and in particular those who would like to attend a "play reading" in Spanish. Presentations of "Príncipe Azul/Prince Charming" will be Saturday, September 19, 8pm and Sunday September 20, 3pm. Teatro de la Luna is conveniently located at 4020 Georgia Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20011. The closest metro stop is Georgia Avenue-Petworth (green and yellow lines). There is also street parking available (free on Sundays). For more details, www.teatrodelaluna.org. Limited seating! "Pay-What-You-Can" admission. There will be light reception following September 19's performance.
